Dear Mr David,

Further to our telephone conversation of today 11 June, I enclose my comments.

To the question do you consider that the existing voluntary code for retailers should be replaced by a mandatory code and that "lads mags" should be marked clearly as recommended for sale only to persons aged 15 and over. I think a mandatory code should be in place for retailers and they should only be available to persons of 18 years and over.

The code is not being adhered to which is why we need a mandatory code.

I hope these comments are useful

Yours sincerely

Mrs Margaret Forbes
