

A77T Photo

by John Campbell

Bridge with different heights in different directions

Like any road in Scotland – Deer pose as a hazard

Low sun and up and down, twist & turn of the road can blind drivers.

A751 carries south bound traffic from the ferries at Cairnryan this junction is particularly hazardous on the approach to it.

With right investments particular with road infrastructure Stranraer could expand its all ready busy marine. To new markets.

