

PUBLIC PETITIONS COMMITTEE CONSIDERATION OF PE1695
QUESTIONS/ISSUES ARISING FROM COMMITTEE MEETINGS

THURSDAY, 8 NOVEMBER 2018

The Scottish Government—

In discussion of the issues, the Committee was particularly (but not exclusively) interested in—

- the remit of the Scottish Human Rights Commission, whether the Scottish Government would be minded to review the current remit and arrangements and whether the remit could or should be altered and expanded;
- the views of the Scottish Government on means testing of people's right to legal support;
- the Scottish Government's response to the "Rethinking Legal Aid" report; and
- whether the First Minister's advisory group is aware of this particular case and whether it would be considering the issue of how to respond to unintended consequences of policy decisions

THURSDAY 7 JUNE 2018

Scottish Government, the Law Society of Scotland, Scottish Human Rights Commission and the First Minister's Advisory Group on Human Rights Leadership—
