

Agenda for meeting of Cross Party Group on Food

Committee Room 4 of the Scottish Parliament at 6.00pm

Wednesday 26th April 2017

The meeting will be chaired by Rhoda Grant MSP

1. Apologies for Absence
2. Minutes of the last meeting (18 January 2017)
3. Matters Arising
4. What is the Future For Reformulation?
  - Scene Setting - Dr Alan Rowe, Food and Drink Industry Specialist, Rowett Institute, University of Aberdeen
  - Case Studies - Professor Baukje de Roos, Deputy Director, Rowett Institute, University of Aberdeen

There will then be an open debate which will cover;

- What does reformulation mean to CPG Food members?
- What will be the issues that need to be addressed and balanced? Will health be the main driver or will other factors have equal or more significance?
- How will these drive priorities for the industry and the consumer and how will potential conflicts between the public (policy), private and third sectors be managed?
- What are the views on collaborative working and/or voluntary codes versus legislation?
- How will reformulation sit within or impact on other national objectives such as the 2030 food and drink strategy vs public health agendas and Good Food Nation?
