

Annual General Meeting
(13th March 2013, 6pm at Room Q1.04, the Scottish Parliament)

Introduction of Mr. Jen-chong Su, the new Director General of the Taipei
Representative Office in the U.K., Edinburgh Office:

Director General Su briefed on the current economic, social and cultural situation in Taiwan. He would like to express his and the Taiwanese government's sincere thanks for the support from the members of the CPG Taiwan. He also welcomes any future initiative from CPG Taiwan.

Reconfirmation of the Office bearers of the CPG on Taiwan:

The three co-conveners are all happy to continue their service as the Office bearers for the CPG on Taiwan.

Presentation, "Bringing A Vision to Life" by Dr. Yupin Chung, the Curator of East
Asian Art, The Burrell Collection, Glasgow Museums; the Honorary Senior Research
Fellow, School of Culture and Creative Arts, University of Glasgow:

Dr. Chung provided her perspectives on the potential fields of cooperation between Taiwan and Scotland.

Taiwan Visit by the MSPs:

The MSPs who visited Taiwan in 2012 shared their experience of the visit to Taiwan. They appreciated the highly developed science, education and culture sectors in Taiwan and believe there is room for cooperation between Taiwan and Scotland in these arenas.

Suggestions from the members:

It is suggested that the CPG on Taiwan may provide further knowledge exchange opportunities in the fields of education, culture and tourism. The members suggested that in future meetings the CPG on Taiwan could invite the representatives from Scottish Enterprise and the Taiwan External Trade Development Council, London Office. The next meetings may focus on economic bilateral investment or other relevant topics.

Attendance Figure: 25

MSP Attendance Figure: 7